IV. Studies and Advisers

The Committee, in discharging its responsibilities, may conduct, direct, supervise, or authorize studies of, or investigations into, matters within the Committee's scope of responsibility, with full access to all books, records, facilities, and personnel of the Company. The Committee has the sole authority and right, at the expense of the Company, to retain independent legal counsel, compensation and other consultants, accountants, experts, and advisers of its choice to assist the Committee in connection with its functions, including any studies or investigations. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, and oversight of any compensation consultant, legal counsel, accountants, experts, and other consultants and advisers retained by the Committee. The Company will provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for:

- payment of reasonable compensation to any independent legal counsel, consultants, accountants, experts, and advisers retained by the Committee; and

- ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties and functions.

With respect to the Committee's authority and responsibilities as to compensation matters, the Committee may select, or receive advice from, a compensation consultant, legal counsel, or other adviser to the Committee, other than in-house legal counsel, only after taking into consideration the following factors:

- the provision of other services to the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel, or other adviser;
- the amount of fees received from the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel, or other adviser, as a percentage of the total revenue of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel, or other adviser;
- the policies and procedures of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel, or other adviser that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;
- any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel, or other adviser with a member of the Committee;
- any stock of the Company owned by the compensation consultant, legal counsel, or other adviser; and
- any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel, other adviser, or the person employing the adviser with an executive officer of the Company.

Nothing in the above provisions shall be construed (i) to require the Committee to implement or act consistently with the advice or recommendations of any compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser to the Committee; or (ii) to affect the ability or obligation of the Committee to exercise its own judgment in fulfillment of the responsibilities of the Committee.

Nothing in the above provisions shall be deemed to require that a compensation consultant, legal counsel, or other compensation adviser to the Committee be independent, only that the Committee consider the enumerated independence factors before selecting, or receiving advice from, a compensation adviser. The Committee may select, or receive advice from, any compensation adviser it prefers, including ones that are not independent, after considering the six independence factors outlined above.

For purposes of the above provisions, the Committee is not required to conduct an independence assessment for a compensation adviser that acts in a role limited to the following activities for which no disclosure is required under Item 407(e)(3)(iii) of SEC Regulation S-K: (i) consulting on any broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms, or operation in favor of executive officers or directors of the Company, and that is available generally to all salaried employees; or (ii) providing information that either is not customized for a particular company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the adviser, and about which the adviser does not provide advice.

Any member of the Committee or the Board may call a meeting of the Committee. The Committee shall report regularly to the Board regarding its actions and make recommendations to the Board as appropriate. The Committee is governed by the same rules regarding meetings (including meetings in person or by telephone or other similar communications equipment), action without meetings, notice, waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements as are applicable to the Board.

The Committee shall maintain written minutes of its meetings and copies of its actions by written consent, and will cause such minutes and copies of written consents to be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

The Committee may invite such members of management to its meetings as it deems appropriate. However, the Committee shall meet regularly without such members present, and in all cases the CEO and any other such officers shall not be present at meetings at which their compensation or performance is discussed or determined.

The Committee shall review this Charter at least annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

VI. Delegation of Authority

The Committee shall have the authority to delegate any of its responsibilities, along with the authority to take action in relation to such responsibilities, to one or more subcommittees as the Committee may deem appropriate in its sole discretion. Any such subcommittee shall report any actions taken by it to the full Committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

VII. Performance Evaluation

The Committee shall conduct an annual evaluation of the performance of its duties under this Charter and shall present the results of the evaluation to the Board. The Committee shall conduct this evaluation in such manner as it deems appropriate.
